

ITC 255

April 18 2017

Anu Slorah

1. Consider the process of someone making a donation to the charity. The rules require that they register before they donate and then log in. Make an activity diagram that shows this process for someone who is already registered and also shows the path for one who is not yet registered.

2. Create a second diagram for applying for a Grant. Use swim lanes to show generally which activities belong to which areas of concern.

